Description

Herbal blend for male vigour in the second half of life – especially for the prostate!

This selected formulation is specifically aimed at men of advanced age. The ingredients have therefore been carefully chosen for the needs that can arise in the second half of life. Extracts from African potato, South African plum bark, saw palmetto fruit, nettle leaves, pumpkin seeds and rye seeds, as well as the amino acid L-arginine and the trace elements zinc and selenium, provide a comprehensive and targeted mode of action. Zinc contributes to
